

Recommended in the Seattle Times June 2006

Château du Donjon 2005 Minervois

"Pale Salmon colored, fruity and round, this perennial winner from the southern France brings berries, cherries and a bit more sweetness in the mouth than most rosés. If you do not want your rosé bone dry, try this."