

88 Points
The Wine Advocate
June 2006

2005 Panarroz Jumilla

A blend of Mourvedre, Grenache, and Syrah, the 2005 Panarroz is a wonderful value. It bursts from the glass with a leather-laced black fruits. On the Palate, this medium bodied effort is big, spicy, reveals loads of depth, and has a tannic rusticity that screams out for a barbequed steaks. Drink it over the out for a barbequed steaks. Drink it over the next 2 years."

www.handpickedselections.com